On 6/28/2022 at 1:00 p.m. EDT, the SMCX will host the “How to Conduct Employee SOHMS Interviews” workshop.

This workshop focuses on conducting interviews for safety management system (SOHMS) evaluations. It describes the similarities and differences of formal and informal interviews and walks you through starting, conducting, and concluding an interview. It discusses refining your own interview skills and using interview results for SOHMS improvements. In addition, several activities help you learn more about the SOHMS interview process and apply the knowledge learned.

This introductory-level workshop is beneficial to personnel wanting to learn more about honing interview skills to evaluate SOHMSs. Personnel gaining the most benefit from this workshop may include safety and health (S&H) professionals, SOHMS points of contact, key personnel and supervisors involved with SOHMS evaluations, or anyone interested in evaluating SOHMSs.
