

Addressing 7 Common Issues with Your OSHA Recordkeeping

Thursday, January 19, 2023, 1:00 p.m. EST

On 1/19/2023 at 1:00 p.m. EDT, the SMCX will host the “Addressing 7 Common Issues with Your OSHA Recordkeeping” webinar.

This webinar discusses 7 common OSHA recordkeeping issues found by the DoD SMCX. In addition, the webinar provides actions you can take to improve the recordkeeping process at your organization to make sure your OSHA recordkeeping forms are accurate and compliant. This webinar also provides ways to use recordkeeping information for safety and occupational health management system (SOHMS) improvements.

This intermediate-level presentation will benefit personnel wanting to learn more about common issues with Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) recordkeeping and how to correct these issues. Attendees should have a fundamental understanding of OSHA standard 29 CFR 1904, Recordkeeping and Reporting Occupational Injuries and Illnesses, prior to this webinar. Personnel gaining the most benefit from this presentation may include official OSHA Recordkeeper, supervisors/managers, Safety and Occupational Health (SOH) personnel, and Occupational Healthcare personnel.
