

Is Your Employee Involvement Where It Needs to Be?

Thursday, January 21, 2021, 1:00 p.m. EST

On 1/21/2021 at 1:00 p.m. EST, the SMCX will host an “Is Your Employee Involvement Where It Needs to Be?” webinar.

The webinar focuses on identifying and creating a process to manage employee involvement in your safety management system (SMS). It also discusses several ways to measure the effectiveness and investigate the reasons for unsuccessful employee involvement efforts. In addition, the webinar provides information to assist leaders, managers, and supervisors in identifying different marketing techniques to promote involvement, including some examples of ways to motivate reluctant employees.

Image courtesy of Creative Commons
(free to share & use)

This presentation is beneficial to personnel wanting to enhance their employee involvement process to better track, assess, and promote involvement efforts. Attendees should have a basic understanding of employee involvement or participation in an SMS prior to this webinar. Personnel gaining the most benefit from this presentation may include: Commanders, Directors & other executive leadership, safety and occupational health staff, supervisors, others involved in managing employee involvement, and union representatives.

Please click the article headline or registration link here to register for this FREE webinar.

For additional information on the SMCX’s services, please visit the SMCX-hosted website at: <https://www.smcx.org/>.